

Honolulu, T. H., April 22nd, 1902.

Pacific Hardware Co., Ltd., Honolulu, T. H.

DEAR SIR:—The presence of the horn fly pest in my herd of milch cows has been a cause of serious apprehension to me, both on account of the consequent deterioration in the condition of the cattle and the reduced production of milk. I am pleased to inform you that the application of the So-Bos-So Kilfly, which I purchased from you a few days since, has already resulted in a decided improvement in the condition of the cattle, as well as an increase of 20 per cent in the quantity of the milk produced, before the application of the Kilfly. Very truly yours,

PAUL R. ISENBERG.

So-Bos-So
Kilfly

Is a Liquid Mixture

designed to protect cows and horses from torture of flies. The preparation is positively harmless. It is used with splendid results as a disinfectant and germicide. The Electric Sprayer discharges the So-Bos-So (Kilfly) in a fine, broad spray. From 30 to 50 cows can be sprayed in a few moments. The Electric sprayer is detachable, and thus may be thoroughly cleaned. If your animals are troubled with lice, use So-Bos-So (Kilfly). It knocks them out. Spray your poultry house with So-Bos-So (Kilfly). It kills lice or any vermin that may infect the fowls. Sufferers from the Horn Fly should give Kilfly a trial. We are sole agents for the Territory of Hawaii.

MAY DAY FESTIVAL

The Royal School was represented by thirty-two boys, who gave a wand drill and did a lot of marching which indicated what military exercises can accomplish amongst young Hawaiians. Suspended from the flies were two banners of the Royal School bearing the words "Kula Ahi" or Royal School. Each boy wore a white waist and dark trousers and a sash composed of red and yellow. The wands were banded with ribbons of the same colors. The boys marched upon the stage two by two with a quick, energetic step which was maintained throughout. The wand exercises were well given and the marching and counter marching were applauded.

The white gowned girls from the Kawaiahae Seminary sang the chorus "Maka Polai" in a manner so sweet and sympathetic that the audience would have recalled them by their generous applause had not the management wisely stated on the programs that there would be no encores. The chorus was a melodious Hawaiian air. The house went wild over the appearance of the plantation scene, "Way Down South," which was given by Kaahumanu School. The curtain went up on a typical scene in the South, with more than a score of turbaned mamies, pickaninnies and "brack trash" on the stage. The boys and girls were garbed in the most outlandish costumes imaginable, and every face was thickly covered with burnt cork. They sang "My Old Kentucky Home" with much effect, and it proved a popular number with the audience. The scene effect was further heightened by the use of calicums. Mrs. Russell and Miss Feller assisted in this presentation.

The Oahu College chorus, under the direction of Professor Ballaseyus, presented two pleasing musical numbers, "The Glory of God in Nature," and "Last Night." The stage was almost filled with pretty college girls, all dressed in white. The chorus was in fine form and rendered the two selections in a very creditable way.

The Kamehameha Boys' School made a hit with its rendition of the Hawaiian melody, "Nuuanu," as arranged by the Kamehameha Glee Club. The number was given under the direction of Professor King, who also played the 'cello in the instrumental quintet. The boys wore their gray uniform coats with white duck trousers. The solo part was well sung and the chorus was excellent. The Punahou Violin Quartet played the "March Fender" in a skillful manner. It was reserved to the last to present one of the prettiest numbers in which the girls of the High School participated. They gave the cantata, "The Ivy Green," adapted to local conditions. The girls were dressed in white and each carried a rope of malle hells festoon-like. To the music of the band they marched upon the stage, executing several intricate figures before forming in a semi-circle, leaving a space open at the rear for the Malle Queen to mount her throne. Miss McCandless, who took the part of the queen, entered with slow, measured steps, attended by two little girls wearing malle leis. Various girls stepped from the lines to offer her their malle leis, accompanying the proffers with pretty verses. Miss Watson sang most effectively a pretty solo, her high soprano being of a pleasing quality. Little Miss Cooper, daughter of the acting Governor, made a pretty little speech to the Queen. The archway of malle formed during one of the march figures was applauded. The cantata was given under the direction of Miss Cartwright.

The entertainment came to an end with the Memorial Tableau, in which all the High School girls were represented in the act of offering their malle leis to Columbia and Uncle Sam, who stood near a large painting of McKinley. The painting and electric effects combined to form a tableau which was full of vigorous action.

PUSH BUTTONS ON GATE POSTS

A gate-post push button connecting with a battery and bell in the rear of a residence is what an up-to-date resident of the Makiki district has added to the luxuries of his home, and now when the hackman calls at the gate, his presence is announced by means of the push button. People who don't care to leave their horses standing at the curb when they go to call the inmates of the residence to the door, have only to step across the sidewalk and push the button, and the bell does the rest.

The scheme has suggested itself to others, and the probabilities are that the electrical push button on the gate post will soon become quite popular in certain sections where the small boy does not hover about on mischief bent.

Adopt By Laws.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Hawaii Yacht Club, held yesterday afternoon, a new set of by-laws for the club were adopted. There were practically no changes from the old by-laws except those necessitated by the change in the constitution of the club from an association to a corporation. It was decided to issue a manual containing the by-laws, measurements of yachts, racing rules, charter of the club and half-tones of the yachts. At the meeting 105 out of 200 shares were represented.

IMPORTANT SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY.

A Clinical Preparation That Positively Kills the Dandruff Germ. A most important discovery has been made after a year's patient laboratory work aimed in a certain direction—Newbro's Herpicide, a preparation that cures baldness, prevents falling hair, and speedily and permanently eradicates dandruff. These evils are caused by a germ or parasite that burrows into the scalp, throwing up dandruff, as it seeks to sap the life of the hair at the root. There's no baldness without dandruff, and no dandruff if the germ is destroyed. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that will do the work. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

CHAMPIONSHIP LAWN TENNIS

The Men's Singles Will Be the First Series Played Off.

The games for the lawn tennis championship of the Hawaiian Islands will be played, commencing Wednesday, May 7. The first series scheduled is the men's singles. The games will be played on the grounds and courts of both the Beretania and Pacific Tennis Clubs. The entries lists are now at the office of the Pearson-Potter Company, Hotel and Union streets. Entries for the men's singles will close Tuesday next at 5 p. m.

The conclusion of the first series will be the signal for the drawing for the men's doubles. These will be followed in order by the ladies' singles, ladies' doubles and mixed doubles. The entries for each of these will close the day before the first game is to be played. It has been decided that there will be no event started unless there are at least four entries on the lists. All the games will be played under the rules of the American Lawn Tennis Association for 1901, as the rules for the current year have not yet been received.

Already there has been considerable practice on the various courts and not only the old players of the two clubs, but several new men, are showing up well at the nets. The practice play indicates that the tournament will be one of the most interesting that has been seen for several years. The entries are not confined to the members of the two clubs, but are open to all players. In addition, the courts of the clubs have been placed at the disposal of any outside players who may wish to enter, and practice games are always possible. There will be arrangements for the public at the games.
